How Far Do You Hit Every Golf Club In Your Bag?

How far do you think you can hit every golf club in your bag? The Chad Johansen Golf Academy is now offering a "Know Your Yardages" training session which includes a printout with the exact yardages you hit every golf club in your bag. You no longer have to guess which club to hit in a round of golf. Just pull out your bag tag and select the correct golf club every time. Check out www.chadjohansen.com for more information!
